

Workshop with Ron Kurtz

From the 10th to the 14th of June 2010 or the 10th and 11th of June 2010

Ron Kurtz is the originator of the Hakomi Method and a preeminent influence in progressive psychotherapy. Ron has led hundreds of trainings and workshops around the world over the last quarter of a century and continues to teach internationally. Ron is a master therapist, gifted teacher and author of Body-Centered Psychotherapy: The Hakomi Method, and coauthor of The Body Reveals and Grace Unfolding.

Ron Kurtz is the recipient of the United States Association of Body Psychotherapy's 2008 Lifetime Achievement Award, which he received July 2008 at the USABP's Conference in Philadelphia.

This five-day training is a multi level training with many experience people attending. There will be students, certified therapists and Hakomi Teachers available throughout the workshop. We look forward to a valuable insightful experience together.

The 10th and 11th of June welcomes individuals who may not have any Hakomi Method training. Ron will be offering demonstrations and exercises as well speaking in depth about the Hakomi Method and how it relates to our daily lives.

Please feel comfortable recommending this part of the workshop to anyone you feel may be interested.

Location: 7,400 St-Laurent, Montreal, Quebec Canada

Loading : contact www.7400reception@qc.aira.com

Cost: 475$ can for the 5 days 10th to 14th of June 2010, or 275$ can for the first two days the 10th and 11th of June 2010.

Contact: Danielle Laferrière, tel: 450 227-7444

www.daniellelaferriere.com www.hakomi-quebec.ca

danielle.laferriere@me.com